

Jonathan Webb studied the cello with Miriam Morris and Claire Oremland until he entered the Elder Conservatorium in 1994. He then studied with Janis Lairs and gained his B.Mus (Hons) in 1997. He was the principal cello of the Australian Youth Orchestra and Camerata Australia in 1997-8 and, at the same time, took lessons from Niall Brown and worked with the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra. In 1999 Jonathan commenced postgraduate studies at the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester as a student of Eduardo Vassallo. During his two years there Jonathan took part in a number of master classes with Ralph Kirshbaum and gained his Diploma of Advanced Studies in Performance. He is currently working as a freelance player in Adelaide.
