

Paul Zabrowarny

Paul Zabrowarny is currently in his second year of a Bachelor of Music and Performance Degree at the Elder School of Music. He is studying under Janis Laurs, a Senior Lecturer at Adelaide University.

Paul started studying cello at seven and a half years of age at Glenelg Primary School through the DECS string program, with Judith Luck as his teacher. He continued studying with Judith Luck at Brighton Secondary School, where Paul was a Special Interest Music Student from 1997 to 2001.

Paul has performed as part of the Elder Conservatorium Symphony and Chamber Orchestras, and has been principal cellist of the Adelaide Youth Orchestra and the Brighton Secondary Orchestras. As well as having been previously involved in State Music Camp, in January 2003 Paul attended National Music Camp as part of the Alexander Chamber Orchestra.

In May 2001 Paul achieved a distinction in AMusA (Cello). He has also participated in and attended Master Classes and Workshops with Musicians such as Jan Sedivka and Alisa Weilenstein through AUSTA (Australian Strings Association).

In August 2002, Paul entered the Senior String Concerto section of the Adelaide Eisteddfods. In the final he was awarded first place as well as the Unley Chamber Orchestra and Burnside Symphony Orchestra awards. Paul also won the AUSTA award for most outstanding competitor on Violin, Viola or Cello under the age of 18. As a result of the Unley Chamber Orchestra award, Paul has been invited to perform the Lalo Concerto in D minor in tonight's concert.
